

Education for Ministry

Mentor Training & Re-Certification Opportunity

When	Where
Thursday, September 17 to Saturday, September 19, 2015	St John the Evangelist Anglican Church, South Lancaster, Ontario (The Church in the Wildwood) 2078 South Service Rd. South Lancaster, ON K0C 2C0

Trainer: The Rev. Patricia Martin

(EfM Canada Trainer and Incumbent, St Paul's Anglican Church, Almonte)

The Education for Ministry (EfM) program is a four-year study and group reflection process for the formation of ordinary Christians for ministries in the church and in their daily lives through the development of knowledge, attitude, skill and identity as Christians. Published texts and essays provide the primary knowledge content. Participants engage in theological reflection, discussion and worship within a local group of learners.

Spaces are available for qualified candidates.¹

The minimum of 6 qualified participants for this course to run has already been met.

Please register as soon as you can and no later than Monday, June 8, 2015.

To register or for more info contact:

Lisa Chisholm-Smith at (613) 232-7124, ext. 231 or lchisholm-smith@ottawa.anglican.ca

¹ In addition to having a mature Christian faith and an aptitude for small group facilitation, lay candidates should have completed a minimum of 2 years of EfM or taken formal courses in biblical studies and/or theology.